This is me 8 months ago defending GME on Yahoo when it was going down and claims that it is going down to 140. At that time, they said it had not been that low in awhile. In the post, I was referring to a dip of 100 that I missed prior to my 140 dip purchase. The 140 dip was about a month prior to this post and the 100 dip was about 2 months prior to this post.
