Kenneth is blaming retail for the teachers losing their pension. Also he says that retail got free money and invested in meme.

Well since Kenneth is feeling sympathy for the teachers, here's the thing Kenny: teachers also bought meme so stop worrying about them, their loss on pension will be covered. If you'd really actually care, you'd close your naked short positions. By doing that, you'd both stop illegal activity and also save the teachers.

Oh and you said that you read Reddit so here it is: "Please, stop naked shorting, close your positions and send the teachers to the moon". (pun intended).
