I'm in a tin foil hat mood tonight, so I'm going to throw something out there and see what bites.

Eviction memorandum ends, I know everyone knows. I've learned lately that RBS (rental backed securities) are all the rage lately. Not as watched or scrutinized, but carry all the same similarities with the good ole MBS.

Because of this BlackStone and others are loading up in rental property, paying premium for it at that, so they can bundle them up and CDO them off into a RBS. Blah Blah Blah

Of course the memorandum ending will start interrupting many payment inflows, and of course when they reach a threshold of defaults the entire CDO defaults. I don't know if this is 8% like the MBS was or not, if it is I feel like that could be reached rather quickly in this environment.

Anyway on to my point and questions. We know Kenny boi was scooping up properties in Texas, my guess is this is why. My question is where do I start to look how exposed he could be on this?
