Been a lurker on the sub for the last 2 years but I finally got in on GME and bought my 1st 4 shares today!
And a friend bought their 1st share last week.

If you're wondering why I didn't buy earlier it's because I didn't start investing in stocks till May 2021 (robo-investing) and then didn't start buying individual stocks till last October. Once I had taught myself abit about individual investing. By that time if I recall GME was pretty expensive for me ($200-300 range) as a newbie & a Canadian ape, paying the CDN to USD difference.

Happy to be here now though and hope I can buy a couple more in the future! ■■■■■■
