seeing some posts on other GME subs from confused/ill-informed apes. to follow-up and to clarify,

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR SHARES IN A SHARE DIVIDEND

none.

No cash. No cash and some shares. No blowies behind wendys. Nope.

A share dividend is just that. Shares given as a dividend to owners of an equity at/before a certain date.

Can your broker try to f with the share dividend? yes. yes they can. how do I know that? I am a licensed broker.

The safest way to be assured you receive the intended dividend and voting rights from the company you are invested in is to be a directly registered investor with the company's transfer agent, whomever that transfer agent may be.
