The share transfer is not an implemented feature yet on the platform. It is something we have been working on for some time now and if it is implemented in the future, we would make sure to let you know. Also, on the ISA account, no shares are lent.

14:29

With the ISA account, is there a chance that you will sell the shares without my permission?

14:30

Or that you will turn off the sell button?

Diyan T.

Your shares are yours to keep and you may sell them whenever you wish.

Ok, so my shares are safe and if the share price for GME went crazy, even as high as $20,000 per share, I'd still be able to sell them for that price?

14:36

Diyan T.

Yes, you can sell or buy shares whenever you would like.

14:36

Ok, thank you

Would you mind sharing with me the reason for the transfer, Adam? Is there anything we may improve in the platform and keep you as our client?

14:28

I have shares in GameStop via my ISA account and wanted to ask if I can transfer them to Computershare

14:28

Diyan T.

I get what you mean.

14:28

I'm looking to transfer them for safety

All the profits from the closed positions are owed to you.

14:31

Even if the price goes to e.g. £2,000+

14:31

Diyan T.

Yes, you can still sell them at whatever price a stock is.

14:31

And you can confirm that you won't restrict selling or sell them without my consent?

14:32

Diyan T.

I can confirm that you can sell the shares whenever you wish as we do not plan to place any restrictions.
