How low will GME go? I'm guessing below 95, 90, possibly under 85 looking at the open interest options numbers. Already down to 95 damn I knew I should have waited a tad longer but I'm only buying in 10 share batches.

Edit: The market is getting raped with a Pringle's can. 5,340 decliner's, 2010 in the green mostly by 1-2%.
