I am an ape from northern ireland. We have some contentious issues. One such being the naming of street signs. Believe it or not there is objection to both English and Irish names being printed on street signs. Default is English then if enough people agree we can have a secondary Irish language name added.

Anyway. Just thinking outside the box. Is there any such fuckery we can apply to wall st. Any local authority laws we can exploit to cause some rukus for lols? Just throwing this out for inspiration. Can the street be renamed? Can we force a carnival down the street? Can the native indians recalom the land? I don't know. Looking for wild ideas. Obviously not condoning any violence or rule breaking. Just legal fuckery suggestions please? For shits and giggles. Not a mutany as I don't need the stress. GME for life. I EXCITE ■
