Not only are they robbing us in broad daylight, but the regulators who are supposed to be protecting us are getting paid from the tax dollars they snatch from us, and they aren't doing a goddamn thing. How can you justify this?

Who in their right mind would really want to short GME so hard right now? Show me some technical analysis that says it's a great time to short GME. We know damn well this is all just predatory. And it's bullshit. This market is completely ruined. Trust is GONE.

Gary Gensler needs to go. We pay that salary and we demand something to show for those tax dollars going into that entity. It's apparent that Gary Gensler lacks the competence or the testicular fortitude required for that position and he needs to go, plain and simple. We can march on the hill or whatever needs to happen but this current situation needs to end now.
