I'd like to draft a letter to sec/ doj to ask why nothing is being done about the manipulation being exposed in us markets. Is it being ignored under the idea that gme and all "meme stocks" are a passing fad? Why are they complacent? If the stock involved was, for ex, Amazon, would it be ignored? Anyone wanting to petition a request for inquiry can sign n we'll send it in. Maybe it's been done but I'd like to start a new petition for change n transparency now rather than years down the road. We need action. Any thoughts?? Open to all.
