I have 3 shares bought this morning in Fidelity- and I made a point to go on chat and ask these questions:

1) Can you confirm that my shares of GME will receive the 4-1 split in the form of a dividend as intended, and not in cash equivalent or any other equivalent?

2) Can you please confirm that my account is not on margin or any other setting that will prevent me from receiving the dividend as intended?

Save the chat and keep your receipts like a good ape

This goes for any brokerage account btw
