EDIT: 4 hours in.

Yesterday, huge news drops and the stock is run through the mid out of the gates.

This is an opportunity people. If you have not DRSED your shares do it NOW!

Question: Once the split happens and the dividend occurs, will only happen to the DRSED shares if the float is locked? If it happens to all shares, Hedgies have a LOT more to cover if I'm not mistaken.

I say, let them drive the price down. I am sure a lot more people are DRSing their GME shares right now (like I did this morning!).

To the Moon!
