Hey guys. I DRS'd the bulk of my GME shares last year but have recently bought more via Revolut cos of this tasty dip. If I DRS again through Revolut/DriveWealth, will my shares go to my same ComputerShare account?

I want to keep the same account for all of my shares to avoid confusion - also adding my tax information was a long and annoying process so it would be ideal if I can keep the same account and not have to update that.

Thanks apes!
