I'm planning to send my GME shares bought on my bank brokerage account to IBKR, then DRS them. I understand that the shares have to arrive at IBKR before I can proceed to DRS them.

However, as I've previously read on somewhere on Reddit (which I can't remember) that those shares have to sit in IBKR for 1 month before I can move them away. Is this true? Or can I DRS them immediately as they arrive?

Would appreciate if anyone can share their experience on this. Thanks!
