13531 have signed. Let's get to 15000.

Dear Chairman Gensler,

In the last 18 months alone, 25 million new investors joined the stock market, and at their peak, retail investors made up more than 25% of the U.S. stock market. But as more people earnestly participate in the markets than ever before, the opacity and complexity of markets has left them concerned that: markets are not
