I've been holding since Jan 2021, right after the peak of the sneeze. Since then there were predictions of Gamestop going into blockchain, then NFT's, then predictions of a market crash due to the immense leverage of HF's/Banks , predictions that this upcoming crash will be blamed on retail. EVERYTHING that was well documented and predicted is happening right beneath our eyes.

I'm as zen as ever, if you're not, then something's wrong with you.

Oh and just about to remove my remaining eToro shares into CS, gotta DRS asap, especially since those mfrs didn't allow us to vote this time.

As an amazing person would say, cheers everybody!
