I have XX GME with Trading 212. I have read through some of the options set out on the drsgme site, I'm nervous about cocking something up and getting caught with my pants down.

As I understand it I need to sell them from T212 and then buy with another broker that will then allow me to DRS them through computershare.

1. What broker would you recommend for a UK ape?

2a. With whatever broker I go with, how long will it take for the shares to be DRS'd under my name?

2b. Am I right in saying that getting the CS login etc can take weeks, but the shares are already there whilst the letter is in the mail?

3. When moon?

Thanks fellow apes x
