Lend your securities.
Earn income.

Earn income by lending securities you already own

With Fidelity's Fully Paid Lending Program, you can earn monthly income by lending securities that are in demand in the securities lending market.

Here's how it works:

1. Enroll for free in the Fully Paid Lending Program.
2. Lend your in-demand securities to Fidelity.
3. Accrue income daily, and receive payments at the end of each month.
4. You maintain economic ownership of the securities you lend, and can sell them at any time.
5. Your loan has no set term and will remain open until you or Fidelity wishes to close it.
