I want to DRS my shares badly. I have portion of GME shares in my company broker account. I'm from overseas, i have an LEI number associated with my company. Does anyone know, if there's anything I should be aware of, before trying to DRS these shares.

The tax implications I will figure out later. And surely I will just go forward if no advise comes my way.

None the less, I'm fucking stoked from all this chaos. I'm buckling my tits the fuck Up!
