Unable to post this elsewhere due to insufficient karma, but I feel this should be out there for people to see.

Found this while looking into the hearing tomorrow (September 14, 2021) for the:

"Oversight of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission."

I wasn't aware that you could upload your testimony prior to the hearing? Seems strange to me but alas, here is GG's testimony ahead of tomorrow's hearing.

There is a section referring to "Security-Based Swaps" that contains:

> "total return swaps were at the heart of the failure of Archegos Capital Management, a family office."

There's a lot more, but I think if we can get more eyes on this, we can more efficiently prepare for the shit show tomorrow.
