So I need to double check something on the account. There appears to be a restriction on the account and I need to make sure it will allow the DRS.

What kind of restriction?

But if it looks okay, how many are you wanting to DRS?

All of them please.

So what is on the account is a fraud surveillance restriction. But it doesn't tell me anything specific about why it is there.

I'm trying to call that department but I have a feeling it is too late to get them today

They close at 5 EST

But let me see if they answer
