I called today to DRS the 10 GME Shares remaining in a FUDelity CASH account. His first response was "Due to them initiating a stock split we are not allowing DRS Transfers" I quickly responded with my refusal to accept that answer and demanded to speak with a compliance officer or supervisor (Momma didn't raise no bitch) He said "I'll speak with my supervisor to be sure, Please HOLD" After a few (4-6) minute wait on hold scrolling reddit for others having this issues he promptly corrected himself with "We are now just getting an update which will allow these transfers again" so ultimately all of my shares are now safely on their way to Valhalla but those brokers are not going to make it simple or easy for us anymore. After this recent exchange and violation of trust I'll finally get to learn how to just buy direct from Computershare!!
BUY HOLD DRS
