If we want to really accelerate the process to DRS the float, we need as many Apes as possible to take the initiative to get GME shares out of IRAs and 401Ks and DRSed! Several posts in SS from u/BananyaBangarang u/winebutch and u/iridesno have documented their experience with Mainstar Trust, which btw, seems like one of the only custodian/administrators that will DRS you shares. I just got off the phone with a very helpful representative at Maintrust and I was able to confirm the information and questions that were being presented in other posts. I will be setting up a self-directed IRA with Mainstar, rolling over funds from my 401k, purchasing GME shares and DRSing them to CS via Mainstar as custodian.

We need to spread the word and get Apes to do this! So much potential rocket fuel is locked up in traditional retirement accounts!

Hedgies r fuk. BUY. HODL. DRS. VOTE. See you mfs on the moon.
