I only say this because from time to time I have a GME tingle in both of my gonads. Usually when this happens we have a 15 to 20% bump. It is a super power for sure. When the tingle is in only one nad then it is usually a 5 to 10% bump. However when I wake up like today and they both are knockin each other around and excited.....woooooo! It's gonna be a good day!

Get ready everyone! Witness the power of my gonads.
