As Europoor (French) I didn't have a US bank account, but since I have access to my CS account, I want to buy directly my new GME shares with CS.

When the fields show up, I wonder "WTF is a *Routing Number* or *Account Number ?"

After some research I have found some information without so much details regarding something named Wise.

I hope this guide could help Apes. Some asked me to repost with an "Education" flair, so here we are.
