

Title: Bridgewater April offering 62,000,000 worth of Exempt Securities? I'm missing something, right?

Author: disoriented_llama

Created 2021-07-21 22:53:20 UTC

Permalink: /r/TheGloryHodl/comments/op13sx/bridgewater_april_offering_62000000_worth_of/

Url: https://www.reddit.com/r/TheGloryHodl/comments/op13sx/bridgewater_april_offering_62000000_worth_of/

Is_self: True

Body:

SEC Form D is the form used by companies to notify the SEC that they have made an offering of securities but that they haven't registered these securities with the SEC. This exemption from offering securities without registering them is covered in SEC Regulation D (Reg D), a section of the Securities Act of 1933.

Form D for Bridgewater April 2021