Greetings Apes. So I transferred some of my XX in GME out of IBKR to CS, and got a confirmation screen, which I shared here.

I didn't know how long it takes to get any kind of confirmation from CS, so I had a look in IBKR account just now, and there was a notification saying that the transfer had been rejected. So I tried again, and got another confirmation screen. So what happens now? Will I get some kind of communication from CS? I really want my purple donut! GME to the moooooooooo on!
