

Title: I dunno Derek, you don't seem to have a lot of experience to be giving out financial advice. And I'm a long term investor, in that my great grandchildren will inherit my GME shares.

Bottom Line

It may surprise some to see that meme stocks have been hot for some time now, with buyers coming back in swarms. During the action-packed period, these stocks were the hottest item on the block.

From a trading standpoint, the volatility of these stocks is a dream. However, long-term investors with a much bigger picture in mind likely do not find these riskier stocks nearly as attractive.

Out of the three above, AMC is the only company forecasted to register year-over-year growth within both the top and bottom-lines. Still, shareholders of each company have been rewarded handsomely over the last three months.
