With all the crazy stuff that happened yesterday i can only feel jacked. to the tits.

This could be one of the many runups we have seen in the past, but CTB rising, DRS numbers, Annual Meeting, Melvin closing is really something.

But Papa Ryan Cohen tweet from a few hours ago really got me .

Humanity NEEDS this he says.

This is why i feel the REAL diamond hands are yet to be tested.

This is why i told no friends or family of my investment.

When gains will start showing up Millions it will be the real test.

If i'd told my wife or friends about this they would have told me to sell.

That this was enough to retire at my young age and not work a single day of my life again

That i could take care of my kids, grandkids and further

But I, as an individual Investor, believe that that is not enough

That's how i read Papa Ryan tweet
