I would like you all to think that I am sharing data which I discovered on a random USB drive in the woods... but I actually just Googled everything. :(

TLDR: Steven A. Cohen is a career criminal who keeps slithering his way out of the hands of justice.

GETTING TO KNOW THE S.A. COHEN

Steven A. Cohen was born to a Jewish family on June 11, 1956 (65) in Great Neck, NY. His father was a dress manufacturer, and his mother a piano teacher. Stevo is also the 3rd of 7 brothers and sisters. He did not grow up wealthy, so he was a self-made billionaire (who forgot the struggles of being poor).

His spouses are Patricia Finke (1979-1990) and Alexandra Garcia (1992-Current) and all together they have 7 children. He currently lives in Greenwich, Connecticut.

As a fine young chap, Stevie took a fancy to taking calculated risks... ~~and stealing from babies~~ his favorite game in high school was poker. My man got an economics degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1978, while in school, a friend helped him open his very FIRST brokerage account using $1000 of his (dad's... probably) tuition money. It was at this moment that he l~~earned how to scam himself millions~~ ~~using other people's money~~ began a bright career in the captivating world of finance.

While still a young man, Steveee was a fruit boy. His starting wage was $1.85 an hour at the Bohack supermarket, though he later found that playing poker was far more lucrative than playing with melons all day.

THE HUSTLE

Steveadamus was also a very sentimental man, as you will later see.

After graduating, he got a job as a junior trader in the OPTIONS ARBITRAGE department at Gruntal & Co. He apparently began making them $100,000 a day using his financial ~~scamidry~~ wizardry! Which was a lot of money during that period of 1978-1992, leading him to eventually managing a $75 million portfolio (of other people's money) and six traders.

In 1992, he started S.A.C. Capital Advisors which was derived from his own name, Steven A. Cohen... a truly creative mind and humble soul in this dog-eat-dog world of finance. With $10 milli of his own cheddar and $10 million from "outside" capital. The NY times noted S.A.C. for it's FREQUENT and RAPID trading. As of 2009, it manages $14 billion in equity. When he and Gruntal parted ways, he ended up moving into the same building as his old employers and even took some old coworkers with him.

After a little trouble with some heat from the po-po, Point72 was founded in 2016. It employs approximately 1500 people, and has an office in Stamford, Connecticut. Point72 was founded as a successor to S.A.C. Capital Advisors. The firm's LONG and SHORT investment divisions are Point72 Asset Management and Everpoint Asset Management. In 2018 it was restarted to handle outside capital after his parents (the SEC) finally let him out of his room. Point72 Ventures was created to make early-stage investments. As of 2019, it has about 15 employees and investments ranging from $500,000 to $15 million. It makes investments all over the globe in stuff like fintech, machine learning (hmmm?), artificial intelligence, cyber-security, and core-enterprise companies.

TROUBLE MAKER

When our hedge fund baby was born in 1992, we had a very proud father. But lo' and behold, the SEC became a "little" suspicious that Stevie Wonder had used insider information when he bet that RCA and GE would merge. The SEC called him to testify and repent for his sins, but he REFUSED.

In 2006, a Canadian pharmaceutical company named Biovail claimed that S.A.C. was manipulating reports to bring their stock prices down. By 2009, the cases were dismissed and S.A.C. counter-sued the company for damages, leading Biovail to lose the case and pay a $10 million settlement.

In 2009, Stevos and bro Donald T. Cohen were sued by ex-wife Patricia Cohen for racketeering and insider trading. Not surprisingly, in 2011 the charges were dropped. But in 2013, they realized their boo-boo and revived the claims of racketeering and breach of fiduciary duty, but still dismissed the charge of unjust enrichment.

The ex-wife alleged that Stevel Knievel had concealed $5.5 million during their separation negotiations (I am not SHOCKED) while the heat was on for Cohen over insider trading. The heat led to Michael Steinberg's arrest, one of Cohen's homeboys from S.A.C. Capital. They reached a $616 million settlement with the SEC, but did NOT admit any wrong doing (also not shocking).

A few years later, Stevus was caught AGAIN in 2012 inside a web of insider trading naughtiness. But this time, it involved another homie from his S.A.C. baby, Matthew Martoma. The homie was convicted in 2014 in what prosecutors billed as the MOST PROFITABLE insider trading conspiracy IN HISTORY.

In 2013, S.A.C. Capital Advisors pleaded guilty to insider trading and paid $1.8 billion in penalties and was required to stop handling outside investments. But as you already know, S.A. Cohen escaped prison (once again) and let his fall guy take the prison gangbang for the team. Dr. Sidney Gilman, the star prosecution witness said that Cohen was the ULTIMATE target, but that darn rascal slithered his way out of the slammer.

The SEC slapped our bad boy on the wrist in 2016 and said, "yo Cohen, you better not ~~get caught~~ do that again until at least 2018, mmmkay?"

THE PHILANTHROPIST

Even Stevens has given $715 million (totally tax-deductible) dollars to many good causes throughout his life, via the Steven & Alexandra Cohen Foundation.

Cohon is also a founding board member of the Robin Hood Foundation (not THAT Robinhood) along with these people.
