IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This advice is your record of the share transaction in your account on the basis of the Company as part of the Direct Registration process. It should be kept with your important documents as a record of your ownership of these shares. No action on your part is required. If you wish to obtain a certificate, please contact your account via the Investor Center website or contact a customer service agent. Fees may apply to certificate issuances. Certificate requests made as part of a transfer request may automatically be processed. If your shares were received by the registration and you have sold or transferred the shares and requested a specific cost basis method, we have processed as requested. If you did not specify a cost basis calculation method, we will use the first-in, first-out (FIFO) for equity issuers or the average cost basis method. Please note that the Company's Rights Agreement, if any, preferences and limitations of the shares of each class and series authorized to be issued, and the rights and limitations of any class or series. Assets are not deposits of Computershare and are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Securities Investor Protection Corporation, or any other federal or state agency.

If you do not keep in contact with us or do not have any activity in your account for the time periods specified by state law, your property could become subject to state unclaimed property laws and transferred to the appropriate state.
