So I saw that if you manage your account on fuhdellitty, you can do an Exercise-and-Sell Transaction.

*In theory...* If a poor ape bought calls on GME but wasn't rich enough to exercise them, but only had the couple trendies to buy the call option. Could that ape do an Exercise-and-Sell Transaction to get all the extra money once it's ITM without needing the full amount of money in his/her account to buy the 100 stocks?
