For those of you who have been following Gamestop, you may have learned that Gamestop will be setting up an NFT marketplace. NFTs are essentially digital artwork. Just like paintings, NFTs can fetch quite a bit of money....in fact, millions. And just like paintings, the sale of the artwork can be used to launder money.

In addition to Gamestop setting up an NFT marketplace, they are also partnering with a company called Loopring who operates on the Ethereum blockchain. Loopring will essentially allow for gas free crypto trading using the Ethereum network. They are also offering NFT minting for only $2.00...

Guess what I just learned? Ethereum's roots are in Russia. Relevant:

Guess what else I just learned? Ukraine is asking for donations...in crypto....

<https://www.msn.com/en-us/news/world/ukraine-asked-for-donations-in-crypto-then-things-got-weird/ar-AAUyF8h>

Ukraine is a hotbed of corruption and all of the biggest globalist swamp rats are coming out trying to defend Ukraine and condemn Putin's actions. Putin has said he is working to denazify Ukraine. This is a "special operation" and we already know that US funded bioweapons labs are located in areas that Russia is attacking.

So do you see where I'm going with this whole Gamestop/Loopring/Crypto thing? Could it be that Gamestop and Loopring are creating a system that will allow the Cabal to fund their fight in the Ukraine using crypto? Are they also creating a system that will allow the swamp to easily mint and sell NFTs in an effort to launder their money? I have speculated for awhile that Gamestop was a secret we weren't supposed to know about and would be the swamp's hedge against an upcoming crash that will be blamed on "meme stocks". See my post on Reddit about this:

https://www.reddit.com/r/Autisticats/comments/of9jr5/theory_we_werent_supposed_to_know_about/?utm_medium=android_app&utm_source=share

So if this whole Gamestop and Loopring thing was originally a swamp created situation to profit off the market collapse, usher in the Great Reset and launder their money via Loopring, and this is being countered (like everything else) by the white hats and Gamestop and Loopring are actually being controlled by the white hats....what does that mean? It means this is all a HUGE sting operation to identify where the swamp hides its money and identify which crypto accounts are being used to fund the Cabal in Ukraine and elsewhere.

BQQM!

Once again, Trump and the White Hats are going to catch them all and it will be with the help of companies who are continually getting shorted by the Cabal...companies like Gamestop who would be more than happy to see the swamp pay for their illegal activities that essentially equate to financial terrorism.

Of course all of this is just speculation at this point based off my own research....but I wouldn't say it is outside the realm of possibility would you?

Let's see what happens.
