I'm a GME XXX holder since last year during the big run at the end of January and have been with a Canadian Broker (Scotia Itrade) since. I recently opened an account with IBRK to transfer some shares out in the process of moving them to Computershare as Scotia Itrade can't move them directly to CS. I'm hesitant on moving 100% of them out from my current broker.

Are there any other Canadian Apes struggling with this decision?
