* If you DRS and your shares were not yet split your 1 share will DRS, the remainder will be put into your previous broker (Ex: TD doesn't give you your split dividend, you DRS the 1 share to Computershare, \the deadline hits* the 3 additional shares are in TD).

* "Sell at market order since limit order is $3.5k now" I can't tell you what to do but what I can tell you is if that market goes through you may fuck over a fellow ape or yourself, I prefer limit order. (Ex: I set a LIMIT order at $1B, they are a transfer agent so it takes 3 days to buy, 3 days later the price is $4B, my limit order will be bought at $4B since a limit order is the minimum amount I want per share) -Socorro O. from Computershare (I added the numbers, sorry Socorro).

* "Computershare called us meme stocks on their email." You have seen the guy, he is a respectable boomer, most of the boomer society doesn't see it as slander, my boomer dad calls it the same shit it's just media driven.

* "Computershare lowered their GTC30 to 3.5K because they are corrupt like brokerages." They aren't a brokerage, that wasn't their call. They used BofA to carry through sales transactions and banks are bleeding badly with losses. Brokerages also know the reality of things, it was banter offering to place pending transactions of a $214.7k GTC30 like a bill on a fishing line, and now that the reverse split is here they know this shit can get real, and pray we settle for $3.5K (we won't, now there's no sell wall at $214.7K so ty BofA).

* "Computershare is owned by Citadel" (I don't want to even get started, but yes, I have heard it). In London, there is a "Citadel Advisors" in the same leased building as Computershare. When you see a Taco Bell/KFC in the same building same menu do you think Taco Bell owns KFC? It's leased space, not a company merger. Don't be fucking stupid.

Hopefully, this helps someone surfing around the sub getting freaked out by FUD. Any questions? Ask away, I love to research. Have a zen weekend and remember, the price is fake. We aren't trapped in here with them, they are trapped in here with us. GameStop will moon it's all just a matter of when, when it does I expect no less than wife changing money followed by generational wealth. Godspeed, apes.
