I hold shares in Schwab and let them know I wanted to purchase GME with any dividend that is paid out. Is it too late to DRS? Schwab also asked if I wanted to sell my shares for a bid price of $5.20-$6.00. What is that about? I told them "that's not gonna happen". They do hold my shares in "street" name to "make it easier" to trade. I'm willing to DRS to help lock the float.

Edit: also need to add that I currently hold these shares in a Roth account. Don't know if that makes a difference. Thanks
