

Title: Hey there...Remember 1 year ago today when GME had an intraday high of $483 and they blatantly manipulated the market by blocking retail from buying securities nosediving the price of the stock costing retail traders billions of dollars?

A year ago today retail was trading GME on the 100% correct thesis* that it was shorted more than 100% of the float and THIS IS WHAT PEOPLE WERE TRADING ON --- THE CONTINUED BUY PRESSURE of a 100% shorted stock and potential squeeze (an actual squeeze, not the BS that's been mentioned with every MSM article mentioning a new ticker squeeze candidate ever since).

Well instead of letting the "free market" play out, the monopoly game was flipped upside down because they didn't like how the game was playing out...i.e., the buy button was simply turned off for multiple securities.

If you have not seen Interactive Brokers Founder and Chariman Thomas Peterffy's interview February 2021 before the gamestop hearings, this is the most important concise background info as to what was actually going on behind the scenes 1/28/21 and it MUST BE WATCHED here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_TPYulRVfew&t=41s

In it, Thomas Peterffy confirms that continued GME buy pressure would have gone exponential "into the thousands" and that it would have caused a cascading effect across the market collapsing the financial system. *Peterffy also states GME short interest was way WAY over the float with options (70 million + 150 million calls short interest vs 50 million shares outstanding). You know...confirming the thesis that many were trading on in January 2021 was 100% correct.

This is full admission that the price would have gone into the thousands, so brokers purposely shut off the buy pressure 1/28/21 to keep GME from going exponential to save their own skin...OR it's a lot like rewriting the rules of the game and breaking the opponents legs at the same time in the 4th quarter.

In turning off just the buy pressure (and not the sell pressure) they straight up robbed retail in broad daylight with the police watching and the world recording it on their phones and these people running the shit show are still out there as if NO WRONG has occurred. Shutting off just the buy pressure instead of halting trading overall artificially affected the supply and demand for the securities they did this to. THIS IS STRAIGHT THE FUCK UP MARKET MANIPULATION as defined by the SEC and cost retail share holders and long option holders BILLIONS of dollars. ONE YEAR LATER after this exposure and almost NOTHING of consequence has been done. It's really all as simple to understand as this and these mother fuckers need to be placed in prison.
