Is_self: True

From PP herself

1. No longer Dming or using electronic means of communication as of Sunday night.
2. If you don't see my face saying it, then it's not me.
3. May seem a certain way, but layers, friends. We've got layers.
4. I heard the dragging and you will see a difference tomorrow.
5. There is a group waiting for me to say Her name. Until it is safe, I won't do it. You will hear from the right person, but you'll also hear me saying it.
6. I didn't understand until I saw it for myself and I saw it all today.
7. Dear God, thank you for coming over to me and blessing me with your wisdom. I hope to meet you again in my morning prayers and will be willing to teach me something only you know about.

Faith restored. Energy up. Getting rest tonight. You should, too.

Still don't trust me? That's OK and you are welcome to ask. There is a simple answer.
