*ATTENTION:in eToro you have three options, you clear out the first (Credit/Debit card) option and the wire Transfer, you only keep PayPal to as the sole withdrawal method to skip that " as previously used for your deposit" rule***

I did this back in november because I couldn't stay on eToro and I can't afford to miss out on gamestop's . There is no excuse for you to not DRS. you can sell in the red and buy in the red, it doesn't make any difference but your shares are under your name when you do this. and I thought I'd share it

Not a financial advice. This is a method I have used and wanted to share my experience. Not a financial advice.

if you don't understand something mention it in the comment section.
