Should I sell my LRC for more GME?

I hold xxxx LRC and xxx GME. I'd love to take advantage of this tasty GME price action and dollar cost average down, but the only available funds I could draw from would be my LRC. Unfortunately, I bought in at the top of LRC so if I sell now I'll have lost about 25%.

If it was your money what would you do? Sell the LRC and buy more GME? Hold what I have in both?
