

Title: Careful out there - Started a DRS transfer with Fidelity last week, shares were not moving out of my account so I contacted customer service. Turns out they were scheduled as a "Future Transfer" and then canceled without notifying me whatsoever

After reviewing the transaction of the 10 GME shares, it does appear that this was done as a Future Transfer which got canceled. This can happen sometimes when transfers are done as future transfers. I would be happy to re-initiate the transfer for you if you'd like.

Great thanks

Weird, the representative said last week that the transfer would go thru on Thursday...

I would like to re-initiate the transfer
