Here is my situation. Hope you can help.

I bought Movie theatre stock last year and sold it when it ran up to $70. I took the gains and bought GME. DRS all my shares

Now it's tax season.

I linked my Fidelity account and my RobinHood account to my turbo tax account. Turbo tax made the calculations and I owe a lot.

I'm having second thoughts on short term sales.

Turbo tax representative wasn't helpful.

Any suggestions on how I should approach my taxes? Where are any deductions? Why isn't my reinvestment calculated?

Taxes suuuuuuuuuuck
