I've been on ■ for a whiiiiillle (Top for a while) NASA shippin' to the moon

Sumbeast! I guess my knuckle drag across the jungle shook the ground too hard. Or maybe it was the pounding of my chest that sent shockwaves of fear through the shills I immediately encountered, that resulted in tranquilizers to neck. All I was trying to do was crouch, let my nuts hang, and relax. I didn't know that my chillin' would be considered an act of aggression.

Who knew that a little sprinkle of Blessons would be a threat to the message?

You can ban an ■ from the jungle, but the ■ to my way still remains.

Waking up to all of the kind words and appreciation. I appreciate it. But really I only have myself to blame..instead of being s■n I should've played in■s■n.

Here's what I'll say:

The ban is unimportant. Doesn't change what the most powerful strategy is and has been which is to HOLD GME.

*They say that we learn from our mistakes, well that's why they mistake me

My thought and what I do share is that you don't only have to hold GME. All of the work and DD that's been poured into many of the subs, and yet far too many fail to see all of the other ways that pressure can be placed upon Ken/Citadel, Melvies, and others.

The other weak points that act in ways as a catalyst. Instead some actively choose to just sit and wait on RC to tweet or Kitty to tweet or the SEC or some other magic ripple as opposed to growing their knowledge and applying that knowledge elsewhere.

I'm crazy and trying to lead people astray when I post a cryptic picture that people are still breaking down and #making actually gains off of. But RC in GameStop is gospel.

OkAy-oKaY..that makes cents...■

I go beyond dropping breadcrumbs to ad libbing live on a Saturday night and yet I'm the Reddit Jim Jones..

OkAy-oKaY-OkAy..

I'm such a Q-conspiracy theorist because I speak about not allowing oneself to become stagnant. Such a conspiracy theorist because I setup a community that expands beyond GME while also being able to circle back to it in other ways.

Okay..OkAy-oKaY-OkAy...

I stand by every single character of my posts. Can your favorite mod say that? Okay. I wrote about how the subs were being mined and how to counter that in many ways beyond $ASS & $CUM...that makes me a person grasping at fame. Okay-Okay.

I haven't made shit up..I just created a way to share that was not considered and still can't be completely read.

■ , ■ crumbs, and ■ whatever it can be/is labeled as..funny how no one knew anything about Austin(The school, the data center, the offices, the connections, the associated RH primary companies acting as novice investor farms) until my ShitPosts and cryptics. The connection to Chicago, the meetings in Chicago. The way that the international offices work, and more. But yeah..because I made it appear wild on the surface..I'm the nut.

Won't ■. Can't ■.

I took a break from the types of posts that many came to expect from me in an effort to let others catch-up. I see now that in some ways my patience was wasted.

Showed in less than 45days how anyone can ■ ■■ GME while turning a goal into reality. I'm the loon.

I can be cryptic as fuck while being transparent as fuck..like I dunno..setting a self-challenge to buy the equivalent of GMEs floor by going from 0.000002 to 1 Full Share of Berkshire Hathaway in less than one year...That makes anything I say worse than anything Jim Cramer says. That checks out.

The future is born, put the past in the casket • If real shit is dead then I'm a bastard • Uh, appetite for disaster •I want a full plate then another plate after •Uh, yesterday just died

So here we are..

As of PreMarket tomorrow ■'s you are officially on your own. I will no longer "■■■ ■ GME" Be free. Run wild. #TheWay

The ■ is yours. I'll take the ■, ■, ■.

I won't be changing my way, going away, holding back, or sharing a single share until my floor is reached. I just recognize to cold truth and so freeing reality that I don't have to be an ■ nor have ■ ■■. I can still ■ ■. ■.

I can be me. I can RatioAtAnythingIDream without a jungle or a cage.

I'm fueling up and getting ready to launch ■ regardless of the weather. Solo or not. Like they say "have it your way".

It's all aboard or get left..looking up, or looking back. Everything that I've ever wanted has always been on the other side of hard work, dedication, and faith.
