Below, you'll find the full archived record of ALL 29 "100% Utilization Day" posts since day #1 on Feb 9, 2022, through today Mar 21, 2022:

1. Posting this bc u/Fantasybroke ("100% Utilization Day" ape) deleted their account, and they were OP for 27 of the 29 "100% Utilization Day" posts
2. As far as I can tell, they didn't post one on Day #1 (Feb 9), but u/ChiefKickAss500 did (see below)
3. If anyone finds a u/Fantasybroke post for Day #1, let me know and I'll add it to the table below

Oh yeah...about that table:

1. I used MS Excel to document and archive each post...and I don't know what file format would allow me to copy/paste into a table on a Reddit post without having to manually enter each cell
2. If anyone can tell me how to do that (I'm looking at you u/LeftHandedWave  ) I'll add the table here as well... (Or, I can also copy/paste the text by itself here if anyone is great with putting the info into a reddit table, and then I can paste it into the post)
3. I *might* be able to slowly edit the post to include all the info in a proper table over time, but I'd love to not even have to consider that option at all! :)

For now, here's the table in screenshot form:

* ***NOTE: The Reddit link for each OP post is Reddit's official short link (in case it looks unsafe to anyone... No, I am not trying to get you to click on some scammy set of links...I'm not Kenneth C. Griffin, mmmkay?)* **

Last thing: u/Elegant-Remote6667, just tagging you as I'm thinking this will likely be of interest to you too :)

***Thanks all!***
