So if you're like me and you havnt a clue what all this "transfer to computer share via these three easy methods!" Stuff is and really don't understand it

You can buy a share of gme (for about 270) off gift a share and they'll drs in your name, you can then transfer the rest of your shares over or just buy on that account!

Yes it's an idiot tax but I'm stupid so I paid it,
