Ok, so little light bulb clicked, possibly nothing, probably nothing, but very possible... I think ... We all know Pulte. Has been pretty vocal for GME, follow him on Twitter, always doing giveaways. Seems like a bro for the bros. Pultehomes is a fairly successful home building real estate company. What if Pulte plans to be one of the first businesses to Blockchain deeds through GameStop. Really show what the marketplace is capable of. That's where we all think it is going, correct? Blockchain assets that are normally paper. Car title, deed to home, property etc ... Probably still drunk from last night and hungry as fuck cause I haven't eaten my crayons this morning so don't hate
