Mayo Force 1 - After a hard week of beating GME down Kenny boy must need a little R&R; for the weekend because at around 4:30 PM EST Friday 1/21/22 Mayo Force 1 took off out of Midway International Airport in downtown Chicago and headed for Palm Beach International Airport in West Palm Florida. Just touched down at 8:15 PM EST. Mayo Force 2 is still sitting in Chicago.

In other news, they drove our favorite stonk down under $ 100.00 USD but we recovered and closed at $106.36 USD at 5.53 million in volume. Well there were a lot of OTM Puts that just evaporated today. What that means for Monday we shall see ? Everything is way down also including a certain coin is still dropping and is currently at $36,230 at 8:30 PM EST along with all coins. The only thing that seems to be rising is the VIX which closed at about 28.00. Judging by all this looks like we might be looking at a very dark Monday ?

Anyway hope you all chill and have a great weekend.

Check back later for I will update if anything changes with Mayo Force 1 or Mayo Force 2 tonight and through out the weekend.

Take Care !
