Okay, DD gurus... it's been touted that once the shit hits the fan hf's will be margin called and that will trigger their demise, as well as the GME mooass.... All that DD seems to be wrong or misguided.

There's been numerous events and even the culmination of them haven't done a thing. Is it possible the DD is wrong? Or maybe the elites are so intent on stealing our money that they will never relinquish their power in the elite conglomerate that rules the world?
