Apes I appreciate your support and It really helped me last 5 days.

I didn't write any words because I have been doing volunteer work for our city and people and I wasn't able to write after all.

Honestly, I have different sentiments. It is awful. I am getting used to living in war and it freaks me out. It's inhuman. I wear my clothes check document emergency backpack and I do it automatically. I have to write about GME and I can compare I have done It with GME stonk every day - current price, every day reports and lot of stuff which can help me to keep on believing in GME project. But It is wrong when I slept snatches in last 2 days and I didn't hear air alarm and sounds of explosions.

We are getting used to living under the air attacks, between human suffering and endless questions - have you heard something?

Positive. I definitely know Ukraine has won. War is going on but It doesn't matter.

People feel support from all over the world. Ukraine has got a lot from people from different countries and sometimes people weep with the understanding I am not alone against evil. Like all GME team against hedges.

I don't post any photos. I think you watch a lot of photos and videos. A lot of them can be shining. But I want to tell apes what is doing famous people from our country. Famous all over the world.

Our the President
