gamestop is being shorted. It is NOT illegal because the SHF short it with options, meaning even if they have short 1000%, if they dont exercise their calls thats just hypothetic and not illegal.

How do they short? They sell calls, and you idiots are going to buy them and lose your money!

Because they short it like that, they DONT pay any money, they could short it for 10 years more.

Then how do we stop them? DRS

They neee to have some GME stocks, so that they can sell a call option. If we drs more than 100% then, i dont know

What i think would hurt them even more, if we buy options that will like expire in the next day at a price of 50, it will be ITM and if you exercise i think we hurt them.

Edit 1: u forgot to say, WE ARE LOOSING BECAUSE WE STOP WITH THE DD.

The SHF EARN fucking money when they short GME, when they sell call options they receive money, and if they „win“ the option battle, they even earn more money...

Edit 2: and they are not afraid of us, they dont have sleepless nights like we think. They are laughing on us because in so long no fucking one discovered that its not illegal what they are doing. Until now. It is still illegal. We need to go to the sec and make that it becomes illegal!
